

Human trafficking is a crime where one person exploits another for labor, services, or commercial sex, using force, fraud, or coercion. This includes the recruitment, harboring, transportation, or obtaining of a human being for these purposes and in these ways.

Human trafficking is included under the umbrella term 'modern-day slavery', where victims cannot leave a situation of exploitation and are controlled by threats, punishment, violence, coercion or deception.

Tri-Valley Haven offers a myriad of services to human trafficking victims such as shelter and counseling. If you or someone you know needs our services, please call our 24/7 crisis hotline at 1-800-884-8119.
